Troy, Michigan 48083-2995

On August 21, 2001, a group of Hague Steel Corporation employees successfully completed the course, INTERNAL AUDITING: Mini-Audits for Maximum Results. The course was conducted by John Novak & Jess Carroll, from KAVON International, Inc.

Hague Steel Corporation was founded in 1969 by David E. Hague, as a warehouse for aluminum and carbon steel coil products. During the 1970's, the company grew into a steel service center specializing in stainless steel coil products. They gained a reputation as a world-class supplier to automotive parts and appliance manufacturers. As a result of this reputation, they were purchased in 1985 by the world's largest manufacturer of quality stainless steel, Ugine S.A. of France.

Hague's long-standing relationship with their domestic and foreign mills sources provides a vast network of high quality stainless steel flat rolled product for their customers.

Hague's current product line includes slit 300 and 400 series stainless steel strip in various tempers and finishes. They are dedicated to providing superior quality and service to all of their customers in North America.

Hague Steel Corporation is seeking registration to the QS-9000/ISO 9002 quality standards.
