On May 17, 2002, a group of Auburn Career Center employees successfully completed the course, INTERNAL AUDITING: Mini-Audits® for Maximum Results. The course was conducted by John Novak, from KAVON International, Inc.

During the course, the students were introduced to the concept of internal auditing, its importance to Auburn Career Center in maintaining its ISO 9001:2000 registration, and their role as auditors to monitor compliance. They also participated in a number of exercises that reinforced the concepts being taught.

Auburn Career Center is a skill development and career preparation center, which was organized in 1963, by the Lake County Vocational Education Planning District. The Board of Education, consisting of members from Madison, Perry, Painesville Twp., and Kirtland, began developing the structure of the district and in 1965 the first classes were held at the Lake County Joint Vocational School.

The Adult Education Center provides a wide variety of services to local Business and Industry as well as individuals in surrounding communities by providing training and services that fulfill the growing demand for quality workers.

The Adult Education Center of Auburn Career Center is registered to the ISO 9001:2000 quality standards.
